Captain / Co-Captains

Team Captains are a vital role for Stonewall Sport Columbus. They can make or break a player's experience with the league. Team Captains/Co-Captains take on the responsibility of not only team strategy, but also team well-being.

Outlined below are expectations of the role of Team Captain / Co-Captain:

Team Communications

- Encourage and support all teammates in order to foster an inclusive and unified team
- Be a role model of good sportsmanship on your team and throughout the league
- Ensure players are aware of game and practice schedules
- Communicate to players regarding MCA and special events
- Act as the liaison between team and Board of Directors / Division Leads / Head Officiators and Referees

League Support

- Ensure team adherence to Sports Rule Books and Policies at reserved facilities
- Attend League Leadership meetings throughout the season
- Attend Captain and Referee Training (Not all sports will have these)
- Distribute T-Shirts and any other items to your team members if they are unable to attend the T-shirt Pickup party
- Encourage attendance at post-game activities
- Champion MCA Events and fundraisers through active and enthusiastic participation (Not all Leagues will participate)
- Select participants for end of year awards from any team

Best Practices from Feedback Received from Other Leagues

- Hold regular team practices throughout the season
- Coordinate team dinners / team outings preferably at sponsor venues
- Encourage "team spirit" during regular games (i.e. all dressing in costumes / matching socks, etc.)
- Come early on game days to cheer for other teams
- Create private team Facebook Page / Other communications channels
